Concerning section III

- 1. The clarity objections raised in sections VIII for independent claims do not allow to identify "the claimed invention" on which an opinion should be based in the sense of Article 33.1 PCT.
- 2. A full preliminary examination could not take place since the claims have not been clarified, see section VIII, in particular with respect the technical features disclosed in section 5.3.

However, the attention of the applicant is already drawn to the following additional remark: the subject-matter of claim 32 is clearly not new since the implementation of a standard gc in a standard Java Virtual Machine covers this subject-matter.

Concerning section VII

Reference is made to the following documents:

D1: Third International Journal of Supercomputer Applications and High Performance Computing, US, MIT press, Vol. 9, no. 2, 1 June 1995 (1995-06-01), pages 108-127. Beguelin a et al: "Recent enhancements to PVM".

D2: WO 98 48353 A

- 3. Additional Reference signs in parentheses should have been inserted in the claims to increase their intelligibility, Rule 6.2.(b) PCT.
- 4. In order to put the invention into proper perspective (see PCT Guidelines, C-II, 4.4), documents D1 and D2 should have been identified in the description and the relevant background art disclosed therein should be discussed to meet the requirements of Rule 5.1 (a)(ii) PCT.

Concerning section VIII

- 5. The attention of the applicant is drawn to the following Article 6 PCT objections raised for independent claims:
- 5.1. The definitions of the invention given in the independent claims 1, 10, 11, 20, 21, 31, 32 and 33, each reciting a different combination of limitations expressed at different levels of generalizations, are such that the subject-matter for which actually protection is sought cannot be determined and therefore the method claims as a whole are neither clear nor concise, contrary to Article 6 PCT.
  Two or more independent claims in the same category are allowable where it is

ىد . دارد

EXAMINATION REPORT - SEPARATE SHEET

- not appropriate, having regard to the subject-matter of the invention, to cover this by a single independent claim (see PCT Guidelines C-III, 5.1).
- 5.2. The category of claims 32 to 38 is not clear. With the wording "A Virtual Machine comprising a process" or "A Virtual Machine having a standard profiler interface". independent claims 32 and 33 are directed to a virtual machine (e.g. Java or Lisp VM) which is by definition the specification of an abstract machine. This appears to be not an acceptable category and should be formulated as a method claim. which appear to be appropriate, in order to constitue acceptable claims. Moreover, conciseness with the other independent method claims is required.
- 5.3. The wording "said at least one event is independent of any algorithm" disclosed in independent claims 1, 11 and 21 is not clear since what the events are is not clear and since five algorithms only are supported by the description. From figure 2 and from the description on page 1, line 2, page 3, lines 20-26, line 31-page 4. line 3, page 10, lines 12-15, lines 30-32, it is clear that the combination of the five events as disclosed in claim 4 sent by the Virtual Machine to a profiler agent through the Virtual Machine profiler interface gives comprehensive information for profiling garbage-collected memory systems covering the five classical garbage collector algorithms used in Java VM implementations disclosed in claims 34 to 38 (page 7, lines 1-6, pages 11 to 14), i.e. the Mark-and-Sweep garbage collector, the Mark-Compact garbage collector, the Two-Space Copying garbage collector, the Generational garbage collector, and the Reference-Counting garbage collector. The above technical features in italic and the subject-matter of claim 4 should have been clear from the wording of said independent claims.
- 5.4. From the description on page 7, lines 7-8, it understood that a "heap arena" describes a logically partitioned portion of the heap for allocation of new objects within the heap. However, this not clear from the present wording of independent claims 1, 11 and 21.
- The statement referring to the spirit and scope of the invention in the description 6. on page 17, lines 16-18, is inconsistent with the definition of the matter for which protection is sought in the claims, contrary to Article 6 PCT. The statement should therefore have been deleted.
